Always Fascinates — Parisian Sage Makes Hair That Is Dull, Faded or Thin, Abundant and Gloriously Radiant

Every girl and woman, too, wants to be beautiful and attractive—it's her birthright—but unsightly, or thin and characterless hair, destroys half the beauty of the most attractive face. If your hair is not fascinating, is thinning out, full of dandruff, dry or if the scalp itches and burns, begin at once the use of Parisian Sage. The funeral services of the late Ira Cochrane were held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. B. Osborn, where he resides, Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Ramage officiating, with interment in the Wilson cemetery.

Mr. Cochrane was born in Plainfield Jan. 6, 1832, moving with his parents to Calais when eight years of age. Later he moved to Barre, where he had resided for the past 31 years. He was married in September, 1857, to Miss Emily Collier, who died in 1868. To them was born one son, Frank, who now resides in Groton.

On Feb. 27, 1870, he was married to Miss Elvira C. Kesar and to them six children were born, as follows: Mary, of South Berwick, Me.; Emily, (Mrs. Fred Gauthier) deceased; Myrtle, now Mrs. J. Roscoe Osborn; Charles and Harley, deceased, and Ira, Jr., a corporal in the coast artillery and stationed at New Castle, N. H. There are living, eight grandchildren.

Mr. Cochrane was of a quiet disposition, thinking much of his home and family, a kind neighbor and an upright citizen. He had been a patient sufferer for nearly a year, and his release from that suffering came peacefully at the close. While he will be greatly missed in the home circle, it can only be felt that our loss is his gain.

The friends would express their thanks to the singers and to all who helped contribute comfort in a time of trouble.

The ladies of the W. G. T. U. met with Mrs. Sherman Chamberlain in Orange last Friday, seven from here going in teams. A short program of interest was given after the business session. Lunch was served, after which the guests left for home, wishing it were possible to make the journey there more often.

Many of our hunters have gone to the woods for the open season for shooting deer. Several from here attended the matinee in Barre last Saturday, "The Shepherd of the Hills." The characters were well taken.

The new block on the corner of Merchants Row and South Pleasant street is now progressing rapidly, and a part of the frame work is already done. A large gang of workmen under the direction of E. L. Seale is at work, and the work is being pushed forward as fast as possible, before cold weather.

RUTLAND MAN ARRESTED.

Was Caught at White River Junction with Young Girl.

Rutland, Nov. 11.—The marriage ceremony may save "Patsy" Cappabianca of this city, aged 22 years, an Italian, from serving a prison sentence. Cappabianca is now at the county jail, held on the charge of seduction. He was arrested at White River Junction Saturday by officer James Pifaniello of this city. The girl in the case is Luigia, 15 years old, daughter of Charles Cioffi of 80 Strong's avenue. She was with Cappabianca when he was taken into custody, but was allowed to go to her home on returning to Rutland.

It is said that Luigia was sent to collect some rent last Thursday and failed to return home with the money. Investigation showed that she left town with Cappabianca by automobile, and they were easily found at White River Junction, where they were staying at a private house. Relatives of the girl said yesterday that the couple will be married, in which case the state would probably not prosecute.

Health Restored by Eckman's Alternative

Glaucoma trouble, very frequently diagnosed by physicians as "tuberculosis in the glands," has been found to yield to Eckman's Alternative when other treatments did not bring relief. Eckman's Alternative is a medicine which, during the past fifteen years has brought about many recoveries even in a number of supposed hopeless cases. Read this: "Gentlemen: In March, 1908, a doctor pronounced my case 'Tuberculosis in the glands,' and a number of operations in a hospital failed to benefit me. In the meantime a friend of mine advised Eckman's Alternative. The wounds in my neck were still open and in a frightful condition when I started to take it. After using two bottles I found I was improving, having gained weight, could eat and was able to sleep. I continued using it until I was well, which was in November, 1910. On November 11, 1910, I started to work, and since that time I have not lost one day's work through sickness. I highly recommend Eckman's Alternative to anyone who is suffering from gland trouble." (Above abbreviated; more on request.) Eckman's Alternative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Branchial Asthma, Stomach Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries and write to Eckman's Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale at all leading druggists. Red Cross Pharmacy, Barre, Vt.

WILLIS GRANGER IN "THE MASTER MIND." RETURN DATE, MATINEE AND NIGHT SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 15

"THE MASTER MIND."

A Play of Politics and Intrigue at the Opera House Next Saturday, Nov. 15.

Probably no attraction booked to appear here this season rivals in popularity or has attracted more general attention from those who keep in touch with important events in the dramatic circles than the much talked of play of the underworld, "The Master Mind," which will be presented at the opera house on next Saturday, Nov. 15, matinee and night.

At a time when the so-called crime plays seem to be the vogue, "The Master Mind" stands out as one that, though having for the most part in its dramatic personae criminals and other types connected with the underworld, possesses nothing in its action or situations that is objectionable to the most fastidious. This piece during its run at the Harris theatre, New York, rivalled in popularity, "Within the Law," which was also attracting crowds at the Eltinge theatre, a few doors away.—Advt.

I have at last found the great Prescription D. D. D. My body is clean, smooth. If there were one bottle only of D. D. D. in the world and I had it, Mr. Rockefeller's millions could not buy the golden fluid."
